

Calendar	Host	Week	Description
May 23-June 1	ECOF	Open Mallard	Install water system, general clean up
June 2-8	ECOF	Work Week - Carpentry	Work on Big House
June 9-15	ECOF	Work Week – Archive	Book care
June 16-22	ECOF	Board Meeting/Drum Feast
June 23- 29	ECOF	Garden Work Week	Work on garden beds and invasives
June 30- July 6	ECOF	Carpentry Work Week	Work on Big House
July 7-13	ECOF	Rest Week
July 14-20	ECOF	Individual Projects Week	Guests work on proposed individual projects – applications due March 1
July 21-27	Pebaam	Grandmother Drum Week	Pebaam leads a week of ceremony and cultural practices
July 28-Aug 3	Johnson	Mallard Island Presents	A group of artists prepare a variety show for the IFalls community
Aug 4-10	Sulentic Dowell	Sowing the Seeds	Sowing the Seeds of Interdisciplinary Connections to Water: Literacy, Stewardship, and Place-based Learning. Teachers from Minnesota and Louisiana, where the Mississippi River originates and empties, will work together during this week
Aug 11-17	ECOF	Stewards of the Wilderness	A group of young adults gather to study sustainability, climate change, and multicultural perspectives
Aug 18-24	Danforth	Wi-dibaajimong EM, LM	Writing group that will focus on personal and communal development as writers and artists in communion with two Anishinaabe writers
Aug 25-31	Craft	Women & Water Week	Anishinaabekwe Collaboration Across Water Jurisdictions. This group will work to further build connections to each other, the land and water in their second year on Mallard
Sept 1-7	ECOF	Rest Week
Sep 8-15	ECOF	Board meeting
Sep 15-21	ECOF	Forestry Work Week	Vegetation management
Sep 22-28	ECOF	Forestry Work Week/Drum Feast	Vegetation management